

Auto Plus Announces Acquisition of United Auto Parts — a Wisconsin Automotive Parts Distributor

Kennesaw, GA – October 12, 2015 – Auto Plus President and Chief Executive Officer Brent Windom today announced the acquisition of United Auto Parts, a six-store automotive parts distributor in Wisconsin.

“We are thrilled to welcome the United Auto Parts team to the Auto Plus family,” said Windom. “The successful acquisition of United demonstrates our aggressive commitment to growth through acquisition. This acquisition fits with our strategic plan and enables us to grow in markets we already serve.”

United Auto Parts has distribution facilities in six locations in Wisconsin servicing retail and commercial customers.

Windom added, “In our first 90 days, in addition to our acquisition of United Auto Parts, Auto Plus has also successfully opened two new greenfield store locations in Olean, New York, and Clinton, Mississippi, and expanded its Dallas, Texas, distribution center to 125,000 square feet of distribution space to our network.

“We are pleased with our recent expansions and excited about implementing our growth strategy through further acquisitions and greenfield developments,” said Windom. “It’s a credit to our team and to our brand that so many of these business opportunities are being finalized because ultimately it positions us to best serve our growing customer base.”
