

Auto PlusSM and Pep Boys Strengthen Distribution Portfolio in Winder, GA Parts Inventory Increases for the Auto Aftermarket Company

Kennesaw, GA – April 5, 2016 – Auto Plus and Pep Boys President and Chief Executive Officer Brent Windom today announced the acquisition of Greene’s Auto Parts, a former independently owned store supported by Auto Plus located in Winder, GA.

“This acquisition of Greene’s Auto Parts is a welcomed addition to our company,” said Windom. “We are committed to aggressive growth through acquisition and corporate store development, and a business such as Greene’s Auto Parts further enables our company to expand our footprint within targeted markets.”

A staple of the Winder-area community it has served for more than 33 years, Greene’s Auto Parts provides customers with repair and maintenance parts for cars and light trucks, along with maintenance items for trailers and agricultural and industrial tractors.

Windom added, “Our team is extremely pleased with our pace of expansion, and plans to continue executing our rapid growth strategy.”
