Kennesaw, GA – October 14, 2015 – Auto Plus President and Chief Executive Officer Brent Windom today announced the acquisition of Central City Auto Parts located in Cleveland, Tennessee, and Xpress Auto Parts of Ft. Myers, Florida. This announcement follows their acquisition of a six-store Wisconsin-based parts distribution chain, United Auto Parts.

“Auto Plus has been aggressively positioning itself to become a top tier automotive aftermarket company. These recent acquisitions help push us toward this goal,” says Windom. “Our plan is an accelerated one and these recent successes are a reflection of our commitment to growth.”

The store locations service two important markets, expanding Auto Plus’ reach in Tennessee and Florida.

“These newly acquired stores build toward our new hub-and-spoke distribution model,” Windom added. “We expect strategic growth through acquisition to continue into 2016 and beyond.”
